PROSPECTUS OF THE RIGHTH VOLUME OF THE

G. BAILEY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. JOHN G. WHITTIER, CORRESPONDING EDITOR. WASHINGTON, D. C.

The National Era is a weekly newspaper, evoted to Literature and Politics.
In Literature, it sims to unite the Beautiful ith the True, and to make both immediately subservient to the practical purposes of every-day life.

In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man, and the Equality of Rights, and opposes whatever violates or tends to violate them, whether this be Involuntary Personal Servitude, Civil Despotism, Spiritual Absolutism, Class Legislation, the Selfshness of Capital, the Tyranny of Combination, the Oppression of a Majority, or the Exactions of Party.

It holds no followship with the Whig and Democratic organizations, believing that the main issues on which they have been arrayed assists on the same obsolute or settled, and main issues on which they have been arrayed against each other are obsolete or settled, and that they are now chiefly used by the Sectional Interest of Slavery, to impair the love of Liberty natural to the American mind, and to subjugate the American People to its rule. Disclaiming all connection with them, it yet sympathizes with those of their adherents who are honestly seeking through them to advance the substantial interests of the country, although it must believe that they have not chosen the better way.

It is a supporter of the Independent Democracy, which holds that the Truths of the Declaration of Independence are practical, that in their light the Constitution of the United States is to, be interpreted, that to them the laws and institutions and usages of the country should be conformed—a Party, whose motto is, Union, not for the sake of Union, but for the sake of Freedom and Progress; and Law, not for the sake of Law, but for the Protection of Human Rights and Interests—the only sure foundation of order and concord.

In no sense is it the organ of a Party, or a mere Party Paper, but absolutely "free and independent," claiming to speak "by authority" for nobody except its editor, and recognising no authority in any quarter to prescribe its course and policy.

INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM. ADOPTED AT PITTSBURGH, AUGUST 12, 1852.

Having assembled in National Convention as the delegates of the Free Democracy of the United States, united by a common resolve to maintain right against wrongs, and freedom against slavery; conpeople; putting our trust in God for the triumph of our cause, and invoking his guidance in our endeavors to advance it, we now submit to the candid judgment of all men the following declaration of principles and measures:

more slave States, new slave Territories, and the nationalization of Slavery, our distinct and final answer is-no more slave States, no slave Territory, no nationalized Slavery, and no national legislation for the extradition of slaves.

VI. That Slavery is a sin against God and a crime against man, which no human enactment nor usage can make right; and that Christianity, humanity, and patriotism, alike demand its abolition.

VII. That the fugitive Slave Act of 1850 s repugnant to the Constitution, to the principles of the common law, to the spirit of Christianity, and to the sentients of the civilized world. We therefore deny its binding force upon the American People, and demand its immediate and total repeal.

VIII. That the doctrine that any human law is a finality, and not subject to modification or repeal, is not in accordance with the creed of the founders of our Government, and is dangerous to the liberties of the people. IX. That the acts of Congress known anty freedom in free Territories; by their attempt to impose unconstitutional limitations on the power of Congress and the people to admit new States; by their provisions for the assumption of five millions of the State debt of Texas, and for the payment of five millions more, and the pession of a large territory to the same State under menace, as an inducement to the relinquishment of a groundless claim. and by their invasion of the sovereignty of the States and the liberties of the people, through the enactment of an unjust oppressive, and unconstitutional Fugitive Slave Law, are proved to be inconsistent with all the principles and maxims of De-mocracy, and wholly inadequate to the settlement of the questions of which they are claimed to be an adjustment.

XIV. That river and harbor improvements, when necessary to the safety and convenience of commerce with foreign nations or among the several States, are objects of national concern, and it is the fiding in the intelligence, patriotism, and duty of Congress, in the exercise of its of Ala the discriminating justice of the American constitutional powers, to provide for the

That Governments, deriving their just citizens and owners of the soil among us powers from the consent of the governed, ought to be resisted with inflexible determination.

XVI. That every nation has a clear right to alter or change its own Governlation, except for crime.

H. That the true mission of American Democracy is to maintain the liberties of that right is a dangerous violation of the the people, the sovereignty of the States, and the perpetuity of the Union, by the impartial application to public affairs, without sectional discriminations, of the fundamental principles of equal rights, strict justice, and economical administration.

HI. That the Federal Government is a dangerous violation of the law of nations, against which all independent Governments should protest, and endeavor by all proper means to prevent; and especially is it the duty of the American Government, representing the chief Republic of the world, to protest against, and by all proper means to prevent, the intervention of Kings and Emperors. The only journal at the seat of the Federal Government, representing the Anti-Slavery Sentiment of the Republic, while the Pro-Slavery Sentiment of the Republic, while the Pro-Slavery Sentiment is represented here by four daily papers, nearly all of them being liberally sustained by Governmental patronage, it asks the support of all who believe, in sincerity, that the Union was formed to secure the blessings of Liberty, and not to perpetuate the curse of Slavery. herein ought to be strictly construed by themselves republican or constitutional

XIX. That we recommend the introduction into all treaties, hereafter to be negotiated between the United States and foreign nations, of some provision for the amicable settlement of difficulties by a resort to decisive arbitration.

XX. That the Free Democratic party is not organized to aid either the Whig or Democratic wing of the great Slave Compromise party of the nation, but to defeat them both; and that repudiating and renouncing both, as hopelessly corrupt, and utterly unworthy of confidence, the purpose of the Free Democracy is to take possession of the Federal Government, and administer it for the better protection of the rights and interests of the whole

Information for Married or Single Ladies. A LABASTER STARCH GLOSS.—The most pure, A LABASTER STARCH GLOSS.—The most pure, glossy, and finest, snow white starch, in the world. The cost of this starch is about the same as common starch, the entire cost not exceeding five cents per quart, and is made just as quick. It preserves the elothes, and gives them a glossy and enamelled appearance, that no other starch can do. This serves the clothes, and gives them a glossy and enam-elled appearance, that no other starch can do. This is an entirely new discovery, and the first time ever offered to the public. I ask a fee of only one dime for imparting the knowledge how to make this starch; and I expect to make more out of it at that low price than I could by selling it to a few of the rich for five dollars, which has been done. Now, ladies and gen-tlemen, send on your dimes, and get this information, which some of you would not be without for fifty times its cost. Copy the address, and send for the in-formation when you have leisure. Better pay post-age both ways, by sending a stamp along with the dime. Address, post paid, UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT. UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT.

THE Proprietors of the POST, in again coming tefore the public, would return thanks for the geneorus patronage which has placed them far in advance of every other literary weekly in America; and as the only suitable return for such free and hearty support, their arrangements for 1854 have been made with a degree of liberality probably unequalled in the history of American newspaper literature. They have engaged, as contributors for the ensuing year, the following brilliant array of talent and genius:

Mrs. Southworth, Emerson Bennett, Mrs. Denison, Grace Greenwood, and Fanny Fern.
